

Squash with Your Squad

Looking to have some fun with your colleagues and bond outside of the office?
Strengthen team dynamics? Learn something new together?

Bring your squad of colleagues to SquashWise for an afternoon of team-building!

Our team of coaches will introduce you to the racquet sport of squash and guide you on a tour of our nonprofit program and facility. Tell us about your group's needs and objectives, and we will design a fun and engaging program for you!

- 5 people min; 15 people max
- 1.5-2 hrs
- Timing is flexible – can be held Monday-Friday during business hours or after 5:00p.
- Held at SquashWise's facility located at 2801 Sisson Street.
- We provide the equipment – all your group needs to bring is themselves (and athletic wear).
- No prior squash experience necessary.
- Food and non-alcoholic beverages can be added for an additional cost.

Cost of one team-building session is $2,500. We also have nonprofit sliding-scale rates – contact us to learn more. Through your participation, your group will receive the following benefits:

- Enhanced team dynamics and unique in-person bonding opportunity.
- Instruction from internationally-ranked squash pros with experience coaching all levels.
- Increased awareness of the SquashWise mission to make social change in Baltimore.
- One social media post highlighting the partnership.
- Logo recognition in a SquashWise quarterly newsletter.

Contact Emily Franz, Development Director at emilyf@baltimoresquashwise.org to find a date that works for your squad!